STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your probation, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

- 1) You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of the time you were sentenced, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
  - 2) After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
  - 3) You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
  - 4) You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.
  - 5) You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
  - 6) You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with, for example), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
  - 7) You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by these and the special conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
  - 8) You must work at least part-time (defined as 20 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment unless excused from doing so by the probation officer for schooling, training, community service or other acceptable activities. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
  - 9) You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. You must not associate, communicate, or interact with any person you know has been convicted of a felony, unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
  - 10) If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
  - 11) You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
  - 12) You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
- ☐ If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to a third party, the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk. (check if applicable)

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. I understand that the court may (1) revoke supervision, (2) extend the term of supervision, and/or (3) modify the conditions of supervision upon a finding of a violation of probation or supervised release.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. The defendant must not act as a federal tax return preparer or assist in the preparation or filing of federal tax returns, amended returns, or other related tax documents or forms for other persons.
2. The defendant must not own, manage, supervise, profit from or otherwise be involved in any tax return preparation business in any way.
3. The defendant shall not counsel, advise, instruct, encourage, or incite anyone to evade or avoid assessment or collection of federal taxes or to improperly claim tax refunds.
4. You must pay any restitution and special assessment that is imposed by this judgment and that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release.
5. You must not open any new lines of credit and/or incur new debt without the prior permission of the probation officer.
6. You must provide the probation officer with access to any financial information, including tax returns, and must authorize the probation officer to conduct credit checks and obtain copies of income tax returns.
7. You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer.
8. You must submit your person, residence, office, vehicle, electronic devices and their data (including cell phones, computers, and electronic storage media), or any property under your control to a search. Such a search must be conducted by a United States Probation Officer or any federal, state or local law enforcement officer at any time with or without suspicion. Failure to submit to such a search may be grounds for revocation. You must warn any residents that the premises may be subject to searches.
9. You must undergo an assessment for mental health treatment services. If services are deemed appropriate, then you must pay for part or all of the cost of treatment, as directed by the probation officer. You must adhere to a co-payment schedule as determined by the probation officer. Payments must never exceed the total cost of mental health counseling. The actual co-payment schedule must be determined by the probation officer.
10. You must participate in the Location Monitoring Program as directed by the probation officer for a total period of 18 months.

For the first 180 days (Phase I), you must participate in the Location Monitoring Program as directed by the probation officer, and be monitored by Location monitoring technology at the discretion of the probation officer. Location monitoring must be utilized to verify your compliance with home detention while on the program. You are restricted to your residence at all times except for religious services, medical appointments, substance abuse or mental health treatment, attorney visits, court appearances, or court-ordered obligations.

For the next 365 days (Phase II), you must participate in the Location Monitoring Program as directed by the probation officer, and be monitored by Location monitoring technology at the discretion of the probation officer. Location monitoring must be utilized to verify compliance with a curfew while on the program. You are restricted to your residence at curfew times to be determined by the probation officer.
